

Dear Parents/Carers,

Sikh Channel are working with five Sikh faith schools to commemorate Saka Sirhand (Chaar Sahibzaade – The sacrifice of the four sons of Guru Gobind Singh Ji). To honour this occasion Seva School will be hosting a charity event at the School on Sunday 23rd December from 6pm –12am. We are hoping to raise money for the school and our local hospitals.

Both parents and children are invited to sing hymns (shabads) in a marquee on the playground as part of the evening service. This will be televised live by the Sikh channel. Pupils from all backgrounds are very welcome.

Mr. Kam Singh, from the Sikh Channel, will be coming in to school today to address the children in an assembly and give them more information about the event and how they can get involved with their families. The Sikh Channel will also be interviewing and filming a group of children to obtain their views about the event. . If your child is already exempt from being filmed at school, teachers will already have this information

Yours faithfully,

Mr.G.Singh
