OUR LEARNING AND ACHIEVEMENTS

‘A Christmas Carol’ Review

By:

Sia Dhesi and Harsimran Bansal ( 9V)

Some Year 10 and Year 9 pupils had the privilege to go and see ‘The Christmas Carol’ in Stratford Upon Avon. The purpose of the trip was to supplement the pupils’ study of ‘A Christmas Carol’ by Charles Dickens which is a GCSE English Literature text. The Fred Theatre kindly provided free tickets for our school party to visit their performance. The actors within the troupe included: Kimberly Bradshaw, Sally Hyde Lomax, Robert Coletta, Olly Giles, Anthony Webster and Ciara May Willison. The show took place at United Reformed Church in Stratford Town which had a warm and welcoming atmosphere and was a perfect venue for this performance to take place. As the tickets were free we donated some food items to the food bank which was run by the United Reformed Church.

The actors played many roles which created an intriguing performance and kept the public entertained. The many personalities and traits they performed throughout the play showed the experience and talent which they possessed. In the play, all actors showed passion. The actor Robert Coletta switched between roles from Bob Cratchit to the ghost of Jacob Marley. His acting
