Dear Parents/Carers,

RE: Guru Nanak Dev Ji Gurburab

Guru Nanak Dev Ji's Gurburab (coming to the world) is a major celebration in the Sikh Calendar globally. It marks the inception of the religion through the coming to the world of the first Guru. This year Sikhs globally will be celebrating the 555th anniversary of this auspicious occasion.

On Friday 15th November we will be celebrating the Gurburab at Seva School and will be graced with the presence of Sri Guru Granth Sahib Ji (Sikh holy scriptures) on site from 9:30am until 2:30pm to mark this auspicious occasion.

Pupils will spend the day learning about Guru Nanak Dev Ji. We would ask that pupils who wish to come in dressed in traditional clothing from their culture on the day, bring a voluntary contribution of £1, which will be used towards faith provisions at Seva. All pupils not coming in wearing traditional clothing will be expected to wear full school or PE uniform. All pupils wearing traditional clothing must wear a head covering and all those not in traditional wear, must wear a plain black or blue head covering for the day with their school or PE uniform.

I would also like to take this opportunity invite parents to join us during the Primary Divaan (service). Parents are welcome to come to school for 10am. The Divaan will begin at 10:15am and will last an hour. We are pleased to inform you that Bhai Maan Singh from Sikh History Series and Basics of Sikhi will be joining us throughout the day to share teachings from the life of Guru Nanak Dev Ji.

Yours sincerely
